NOTES:

Puget Sound requires a total of 32 units to graduate

- 1) Two survey courses from: HIST 101, 102, 103, 112, 152, 153, 224, 230, 245, 248, 254, 280, 281, 291, 293; CLSC 211, 212.
- 2) Six additional history electives, at least four of the six at the 300 and 400 levels.
- 3) Of the three units of upper division coursework required outside the first major, the Connections course will count for one unless it is used to meet a major requirement.

Excluding HIST 200 and 400, the major must include:

- at least one unit in each in three of the following five areas of history: African, Asian, European, Latin American, and United States history.
- at least one unit of ancient/medieval/early modern history, chosen from the following: HIST 101, 112, 230, 245, 280, 293, 302, 305, 307, 311, 314, 351, 352; CLSC 210, 211, 212, 320.

Seminars in Scholarly Inquiry offered by the History Department do not count toward either the History major or minor.

The following Connections courses may count toward the major in History: AFAM 355, 360; CONN, 333, 334, 358, 359; LAS 387; STS 330, 370. For students whose first major is History, Connections courses that fulfill a requirement for the major in History will not count as satisfying the graduation requirement of three upper-division courses outside the major.

Excluding HIST 200 and 400, the major must include:

- at least one unit each in three of the following five areas of history: African, Asian, European, Latin American, and United States.
- at least one unit of ancient/medieval/early modern history, chosen from the following: HIST 101, 112, 230, 245, 280, 293, 302, 305, 307, 311, 314, 351, 352; CLSC 210, 211, 212, 320.

First year seminars do not count toward either the History major or minor.

At least five units of the major must be completed in residence at Puget Sound.

Students who plan to do graduate work in African, Asian, European, or Latin American history are advised to take at least two years of an appropriate foreign language.

Most students with no college work in history start with a 100 or a 200 level course; Students with particular interests, and junior or senior students from other departments, are encouraged to take courses at the 300 level, following consultation with members of the History Department or the instructor. Students considering graduate study in history should seek guidance from a member of the department with expertise in their area of interest; such a consultation could occur as early as the freshman or sophomore year.
