Meet 'n' Greet + Show 'n' Tell

September 4, 6-7:00pm PST
Virtual Event, Zoom

Meet faculty and fellow students in the Asian Studies/Chinese Program. This is an informal gathering followed by a 'show 'n' tell' session, where all participants share a favorite (Chinese, Asian, or other) non-alcoholic beverage and learn how to brew Chinese green/Long Jing Tea from Prof. Perry.

Puget Sound Lending Library Provides Course Materials to Students

The Center for Student Support's 'Campus Lending Library' is lending course materials to Puget Sound students, free of charge.

You can find the catalog of available texts (note that there are 5 tabs), and the request form on the Center for Student Support UPS webpage.

If you are living outside of Tacoma for the Fall 2020 semester, the Campus Lending Library will mail the books to you free of charge. If you are living in Tacoma, pick up your books from the Student Diversity Center.

Email yellowhouse@pugetsound.edu if you have questions or need assistance!

Denver Regional Club Lecture: Innocent and Ally: The Early American Missionary Press and the Opium War

September 9, 5:30pm PST
Virtual Event

Join Professor Emeritus Suzanne Wilson Barnett as she delves into the recent decades of the U.S.-China relationship as varying adversarial or friendly, often both at the same moment—depending on politics, economic conditions at home and globally, as well as vague mutual notions of “The Other.”

This talk seeks a point of context in China's “Opium War,” 1839-1842, and focuses on the early Protestant missionary press in China and its secular publications in Chinese to introduce “world” (that is, European and American) civilization to a Chinese readership that included scholars and officials.

2020 Tacoma Moon Festival

October 1, All Day
Virtual Event

The 2020 Tacoma Moon Festival will be celebrated virtually at the Tacoma Chinese Reconciliation Park website.

Imagine a beautiful graphic representation of Chinese Reconciliation Park that you can visit from home. As you move around the map on your screen, you can visit the information booth, the Ting, vendor booths, kids activity booths, food vendor stalls, the tea ceremony booth, the calligraphy booth, and even the much-loved t-shirt and poster sales booth.

Creative ideas are welcome and all are encouraged to apply to participate. See event website for more details.

Kim Soom, One Left, and the Legacy of Korea's "Comfort Women"

October 8, 6:00pm PST
Virtual Event, Zoom

Join us for a reading from One Left, followed by discussion with renowned translators Bruce and Ju-Chan Fulton.

One Left is a provocative, extensively researched novel by Kim Soom. Constructed from the testimonies of dozens of "comfort women," this first-ever English translation recovers the overlooked and disavowed stories of Korea's most marginalized women.

Please note that this event addresses a topic (sexual violence) that may be disturbing for some attendees.

See event website for zoom info and details.

Asian Studies Interest Meeting

October 12, 5-6:00pm PST
Virtual Event, Zoom

If you want to learn about Asian Studies, Chinese and Japanese majors and minors, scholarship opportunities, or future study abroad programs in Asia, attend our interest meeting.

Asian Studies faculty members and students will share information about the program and answer questions.
