FELLOWSHIPS

Fulbright Scholarships

Teaching Scholarship to Germany – Allyson Hale (Alternate)

Teaching Scholarship to Germany – Katherine Tuteur (Alternate)

Teaching Scholarship to Korea – Christina Wu (Alternate)

Teaching Scholarship to Argentina – Giulia Leggett

Teaching Scholarship to Argentina – Kyle Nunes (Alternate)

Teaching Scholarship to Bosnia and Herzegovina – Kammi Sheeler

The U.S. student program is designed to give recent B.S./B.A. graduates and master's and doctoral candidates opportunities for personal development and international experience. Students teach English as a second language in high schools and participate in various community and cultural activities. Projects and/or activities may include university coursework, independent library or field research, classes in a music conservatory or art school, special projects in the social or life sciences, or a combination.

French Government Teaching Assistantship..... Chelsea Asher
Abigail Kaufman
Lauren Vandenberg

The French Government Teaching Assistantships are competitive and prestigious awards granted by the French government. Students receiving these assistantships teach English abroad in the French school system for one academic year.

Thomas J. Watson Fellowship Margaret Shelton
Jacqueline Ward

The Watson Fellowship enables college graduates of unusual promise to engage in an initial post-graduate year of independent study and travel abroad. This opportunity provides for a focused and disciplined Wanderjahr of the graduate's own design. The fellowship provides a grant of $25,000 to each recipient.

Morris K. Udall Scholarship Honorable Mention—Margaret Shanahan

The Morris K. Udall Scholarship and Excellence in National Environmental Policy Foundation was founded in 1992 to honor Congressman Udall and his legacy of public service. Congressman Udall had a lasting impact on our nation's environment, public lands, and natural resources, and he also championed the rights of Native Americans and Alaska natives and strengthened their ability for tribal self-governance. Typical majors or areas of studies in which Udall Scholars are involved include environmental engineering, natural sciences, natural resource management, social sciences, and Native American public policy.

Princeton-in-Asia Fellowship..... Griffin Hotchkiss

The Princeton-in-Asia (PiA) Fellowship provides transformative, service-oriented experiences for talented graduates and serves the needs of Asia as determined by our Asian partners. Over the last century, the organization has achieved this goal by providing talented young people with various opportunities to live and work in Asia. The first PiA “fellowships” consisted of a handful of Princeton University graduates who went to China in the late 1890s to do relief work and teach English; the program has since expanded considerably in size and scope throughout Asia. In 2010 PiA placed 165 fellows in 18 countries, including Cambodia, China/Hong Kong, Timor-Leste, India, Indonesia, Japan, Kazakhstan, Korea, Laos, Mongolia, Malaysia, Nepal, Philippines, Singapore, Taiwan, Thailand, and Vietnam. Currently the program offers primarily teaching fellowships with additional fellowships in the fields of journalism, international development, and business.
